

Essay writing - structuring paragraphs (intermediate - basics)

Name:

Date:

Learning about paragraphs

Select the correct answer

A good paragraph should have a clear main idea that is supported by evidence.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph can have unrelated ideas as long as they are interesting.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph should have a logical flow and transition smoothly from one idea to the next.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph can be made up entirely of long sentences.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph should have a balance of descriptive and analytical sentences.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph does not need to have a concluding sentence that sums up the main idea.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph should include relevant examples to support the main idea.

☐ True ☐ False

A good paragraph can have as many main ideas as the writer wants.

☐ True ☐ False

Sort the sentences to create a well-written paragraph

- ☐ Voter turnout and engagement are crucial for ensuring the legitimacy and representativeness of elected officials.
- ☐ Election results are tallied and announced, determining the winners who will hold political office.
- ☐ Elections are a fundamental part of the democratic process, allowing citizens to choose their political representatives.
- ☐ Voters then head to the polls on election day to cast their ballots, exercising their right to participate in the democratic process.
- ☐ Maintaining the integrity of the electoral system, through measures such as secure voting and fair districting, is essential for preserving democratic values.
- ☐ During elections, candidates campaign to garner support from the electorate and share their platforms and policy proposals.
- ☐ The peaceful transfer of power between outgoing and incoming officials is a hallmark of a healthy democracy.

Write a paragraph about the importance of elections in a democracy.
