

Christmas Stories

Name:

Date:

Dr. Seuss

Source: Wikimedia Commons

Dr. Seuss is a famous author from the United States. He was born Theodor Seuss Geisel on March 2, 1904, in Springfield, Massachusetts. He passed away on September 24, 1991, in San Diego, California. Dr. Seuss is well-known for writing many beloved children's books, including the famous Christmas story "How the Grinch Stole Christmas!"

Besides the Grinch, Dr. Seuss wrote many other popular stories. Some of his most famous books include "The Cat in the Hat," which tells the tale of a mischievous cat who visits two children, and "Green Eggs and Ham," a fun story about trying new things. Another favorite is "Horton Hears a Who!," which teaches the important lesson that "a person's a person, no matter how small."

Dr. Seuss had a very creative and playful writing style, often using rhymes and made-up words to make his stories fun and engaging. He also worked as a political cartoonist, illustrator, poet, animator, and filmmaker.

An interesting fact about Dr. Seuss is that he used several pen names, including Theo LeSieg and Rosetta Stone. He studied at Dartmouth College and later attended Lincoln College, Oxford.

Dr. Seuss's stories have been loved by generations of children and adults alike. They are not only entertaining but also teach important lessons about kindness, acceptance, and the joy of reading. So the next time you pick up a Dr. Seuss book, get ready for a whimsical adventure filled with colorful characters and delightful rhymes!

Christmas Stories

Name:

Date:

The author

Read the text about the author of the story on the previous page and answer the questions.

For each sentence, choose if it's true or false.

Dr. Seuss was born on March 2, 1904, in Springfield, Massachusetts.

☐ True ☐ False

Dr. Seuss wrote the famous children's book 'Green Eggs and Ham'.

☐ True ☐ False

Dr. Seuss passed away on September 24, 1981, in San Diego, California.

☐ True ☐ False

The Cat in the Hat is about a mischievous dog who visits two children.

☐ True ☐ False

Dr. Seuss used the pen name Theo LeSieg.

☐ True ☐ False

Horton Hears a Who! teaches the lesson that 'a person's a person, no matter how small'.

☐ True ☐ False

Christmas Stories

Name:

Date:

Audio Content

To listen to audio content just scan the QR code and listen to it on the digital worksheet.

<https://to-teach.ai/worksheet/PbPGKnR4GBXfiape3JXr>

Put the parts of the story in the correct order.

- ☐ He goes from house to house, taking all the Christmas decorations, presents, and food, and stuffs them into a big sack.
- ☐ The Grinch, a grouchy creature, lives in a cave on a mountain overlooking the town of Whoville.
- ☐ Determined to stop Christmas from coming, the Grinch devises a plan to steal all the Christmas items from the Whos.
- ☐ The Grinch believes that without these items, the Whos will be sad and Christmas will be ruined.
- ☐ The Whos in Whoville love Christmas and celebrate it joyfully, which annoys the Grinch.
- ☐ The Grinch's heart grows three sizes, he returns all the stolen items, joins the Whos in their celebration, and understands the true spirit of Christmas.
- ☐ On Christmas morning, he is surprised to hear the Whos singing joyfully despite having nothing.
- ☐ On Christmas Eve, the Grinch dresses as Santa Claus and, along with his dog Max disguised as a reindeer, sneaks into Whoville.

Christmas Stories

Name:

Date:

Draw a scene from the story.