How to use future continuous?

The future progressive tense, also future continuous, expresses a continuing action that will be in progress at a future time.

We use the English future progressive tense to:

express that an action will be in progress at a certain future time.

Example: In an hour she will be sitting at her table with her friends.

express a future action that we expect to happen.

Example: And she will be seeing Charles, a good-looking pensioner she met there last week.

Signal words for the future progressive are: at 4 o'clock tomorrow, this time next week

To conjugate the future progressive tense we follow the rule: will + be + present participle or ing-form.
