reflection: group work

Name: Date:

Choose the correct answer

How well did the group listen to and consider each member's ideas during the project on animals in winter?

○ Everyone's ideas were heard and taken into account   ○ Some members' ideas were ignored

○ Only the loudest members' ideas were considered

Did the group stay organized and keep track of their progress during the project?

○ Yes, the group had a clear plan and regularly checked their progress

○ No, the group had no system for organization

○ No, the group often lost track of what had been completed

How well did the group provide constructive feedback to each other?

○ The group's feedback was harsh and not constructive

○ The group avoided giving any feedback

○ The group gave helpful feedback that improved the project

Did the group create a final presentation that accurately represented everyone's contributions?

○ No, some members' contributions were left out

○ Yes, the presentation included input from all group members

○ No, the presentation only reflected the work of a few members

How well did the group manage distractions during their work sessions?

○ The group was easily distracted and lost a lot of time

○ The group sometimes struggled with distractions

○ The group stayed focused and minimized distractions

Did the group ask for and incorporate feedback from sources outside of the group?

○ No, the group only used feedback from within the group

○ Yes, the group actively sought out and used external feedback

○ No, the group didn't consider feedback from others

How well did the group adapt to changes or challenges during the project?

○ The group was flexible and handled changes well

○ The group resisted changes and stuck to their original plan

○ The group struggled with changes and became frustrated

Did the group ensure that all members understood the project's objectives and goals?

○ No, the objectives were only understood by a few members

○ No, some members were unclear about the project's goals

○ Yes, the group made sure everyone was on the same page

Name one strategy your group used to stay organized during the project.

_____

_____

_____

Describe how your group handled distractions during work sessions.

_____

_____

_____

Explain how your group incorporated feedback from outside sources.

_____

_____

_____